We provide clients with design and maintenance of specific Employee Benefit Websites. This greatly enhances the perception and value of your benefit plan offerings.

Your Human Resources Department can:

- Offer a concise summary of your company benefit plan
- Make changes internally or let us do it for you
- Make printing any part of the entire plan easy
- Keep all the information current and accurate
- Control the content with a series of permission locks

Your employees can:

- Access specific information about each type of benefit offered
- Contact providers directly
- Minimize unnecessary Human Resources involvement
- Access forms and documents you have authorized
- Handle certain transactions and make changes
- Conduct claims and services inquiries
